If the home closes this guarantee only covers my commission.

If you can find one other agent in Connecticut that offers a 100% customer satisfaction guarantee, you should call them. If not my contact info is below, let's get started!

"I am blessed to have worked with Steve, he was very attentive to me in my home-buying journey. Steve absolutely knows real-estate and was great with explaining everything I needed to know. He is kind and went above and beyond for me, even taking me to home depot and hanging blinds in all of the windows in the house for me and so much more. I would recommend him to my friends and family and I would work with him again given the opportunity." –Tracy Thompson

The Vision: The Home & Art Group is recruiting writers, authors, journalists, designers editors, sales reps, contractors, artists and advertisers from around the world. We are creating an online magazine and a print edition. The local tabloids will print 100,000 copies per region. Each copy will be approximately 4 pages, a glossy stock with local content. There will be a quarterly or yearly 30-page edition available for global distribution.

Customers: The target audience for Home & Art Group is homeowners, including current owners and those in the planning stage. The gallery creates a culture of art, music, food and drink that appeals to agents and customers of the brokerage. People do business with people they know like and trust.

Mission Statement: Home is where the art is. Home and Art group is committed to helping people with their needs for housing, art and entertainment. We address the human needs for shelter, safety, love, esteem and self actualization.

Summary: Art and housing are two of the oldest industries in the world. When you look at an ant colony or beehive it becomes obvious that the art of home building is engrained in the DNA of all living creatures. There is zero evidence that art and housing will ever go out of style. Combining art and real estate to create entertainment venues, build relationships and replace real estate offices is a solid plan.

Our Tabloid: Thousands of copies will be delivered to hundreds of waiting room locations through out Litchfield County and grow rapidly through CT. Each tabloid will have QR code that take people to the online publication so customers can take your advertising with them. We deliver to restaurants, doctors offices, service centers. Anywhere people are sitting around. This allows our publication to be read 5-7 times a day by different people. A quarterly magazine is also being created.
